THREE BURGLARS RAID TWO MANSIONS IN THE "TERROR ZONE"

Lantern of Intruder Awakens Victim in West Side House, but Alarm to Special Police Guard Fails to Capture Gang.

Robert Smith, senior member of the firm of R. Smith & Co., cloak manufacturers, was awakened in his home, No. 32 West Ninety-second street station, of highway robbery as street, early to-day by the light from a burglar's dark lantern shining in his face. Mr. Smith sprang from bed, yelling for police, and as the men. burglar darted into the front room he followed. There Mr. Smith saw robbery of John Farley on the night of a second burglar, also carrying a dark lantern. The two thieves ran down the front steps to the ground floor, where a third burglar appeared, and the three sped through the open door to the street.

DUCKED IN A TUB

BY MERRY DINERS

Mrs. Ral Parr in a Bathing Suit

a Tempting Mark for Prank

in Baltimore Club.

Mr. Smith's yells awakened his son other burglars when the cry came from and asked who it was.

Mrs. Gorman's house in search for other burglars when the cry came from and asked who it was. Herbert, who was on the fourth floor. Mr. Smith's Young Smith seized a revolver and ran to his father's aid in time to see the mer of Columbus avenue.

Mr. Smith's cries alarmed the neigh-

Mr. Smith's cries alarmed the neighborhood. Windows were thrown up in all the houses on the block and the cry for police was taken up by frightened men and women.

Simmons House Looted Too.

Henry Simmons, whose residence is at No. 34, soon joined in the alarm in earnest. His house had also been entered by the burglars, and when he started to his neighbor's aid he found things torn to pleces on the first floor. The Smith residence is of five stories.

Mr. Smith's bedroom is on the second floor, and separated from the library in the front by an alcove in which a large mirror hangs. Mrs. Smith is vis.

With keys they had opened other doors and then, providing against capture, they had opened other doors and then, providing against capture, they had opened other hoors and then, providing against capture, they had opened other hoors and then, providing against capture, they had opened other doors and then, providing against capture, they had opened other hoors and then, providing against capture, they had opened other doors and then, providing against capture, they had opened other doors and then, providing against capture, they had opened other doors and then, providing against capture, they had opened other doors and then, providing against capture, they had opened other doors and then, providing against capture, they had opened other hoors, and then, providing against capture, they had opened other hoors, and then, providing against capture, they had opened other hoors in the rear and the front door.

Every telephone wire in the house indoors in the house they was the smith the exception of the one leading to Mr. Smith's room.

In Mr. Smith's room.

In Mr. Smith's room was a safe containing all the family tewels and a large sum of money. The bolice believe that the one leading to Mr. Smith's room.

In Mr. Smith's exception of the one leading to Mr. Smith's room.

Every telephone wire in the house they was the first or one leading to Mr. Smith's room.

In Mr. Smith's exception of the one leading to Mr. Smith's ro in the front by an alcove in which a large mirror hangs. Mrs. Smith is visiting in Norfolk, Va., and is believed to have packed up a large quantity of silver for safe keeping. The bedrooms of the three daughters of the family are on the third floor, and above young Mr. Smith's rooms on the fourth floor are the rooms of three maid servants. In telling of his en counter with the burglars Mr. Smiti

"I always keep a light burning in the hall outside my door, and this morning I was awakened by a slight noise and, seeing the hall in darkness, I was suspicious. An instant later a light from a dark lantern shot across my face, and then I saw it in the mirror in the alcove, I cried out: 'Who is there?' There was no answer and I saw the figure of a man between my room and the library.
"I leaped from bed and made for the man. The room was heavy with smoke, apparently from the lantern the man He shut off the light and started to run just as a second man

One of Many Burglaries.

"My revolver was upstairs in my son" room and I knew it would be suicidal for me to follow the men downstairs. at a costume dinner dance given by As I got to the top of the steps I saw Mrs Henry Clews Jr., at then the three ran to the street, just as impromptu and was inspired by the cosmy son joined me."

The cries of the neighbors were liveliest of Baltimore's society maquickly answered by the police. During trons. She wore a silk bathing suit dozen or more houses in the neighborhood entered by burglars, and the conditions have become so dangerous that residents in Eighty-ninth street and some in West End avenue have fitted is a generously proportioned young some in West End avenue have fitted is a generously proportioned young their homes with steel doors and shut- woman, with yellow hair and big violet ters, with iron bars over the scuttles eyes. Her bathing suit never fails to and skylights. Only a few days ago create a sensation among strangers. one West End avenue resident closed up his home and went to live in a ho- Elk Ridge Country Club was not con-

Commissioner Bingham has been and Mrs. Parr's bathing suit occasioned aroused by these many robberies and considerable comment. Somebody sugthe stories that absolutely no protection gested that the suit would look better was being given by the police. Twenty on her if it were wet. Three or four men from Headquarters and precinct young men took the suggestion literdetectives were assigned to the terror- ally. They made an unostentatious esized district last night.

Shortly after midnight Mrs. L. C. Gorman, of No. 5 West Eighty-third street saw a man, in front of her home, whose actions convinced her that he was a burglar. The police were called but the man escaped. Nothing was stolen the house the house the house the house the house the house the house.

FIND THE COACH!

Here's another puzzle-Just try and find the Coach Because the artist "drew" one Do not the man approach.

Just get right good and even By getting one at cost. You'll find this very easy.

Unless World "Wants" vou've lost, See WORLD

"Horse and Carriage" Ads.

Obly one "BROMO QUININE" - That is LAXABIVE BROMO OLININE Look for the signature of E. W. GROVE. Used the world over to Cure a Cold in One Day. 26c. - 2

POLICEMAN, HE SWEARS, HELPED HIM ROB VICTIM

'Scotty" Ryan Testifies That Dawkins Kept Most of the Loot.

WOMAN ACCUSES HIM

Declares He Proposed Marriage to Her When He Already Had a Wife.

heard the remmarkable story of "Scot-

Ryan stated that the proceeds of the "I was asleep in my home in Gold street when Dawkins came to my door and hammered with his nightstick

"I came down to the door

The police found that the burglars had entered Mr. Smith's home by forcing the basement door in the rear with keys they had opened other doors and then, providing against they have a supported that would challe had been as they have a support of the support of " 'Get up, pai,' Dawkins said, 'and threw him out into the street.

to the corner. During the shaking up I "will not deter you from making any got my hand into Farley's vest pocket motions.

and pulled out the supposed roll. It amounted to $3. Dawkins took the $3 and handed me back $1 for my trouble, my motions until after the court passes remarking that he believed I was keep- sentence," retorted the attorney. "This ing back some of the proceeds of the writ has been served, in the regular tifled that Dawkins had represented himself to her as an unmarried man and had promised to marry her. Mrs. Hyan's testimony aso disclosed the theory of the prosecution as to the reason baseline resident many some dark. Dawkins needed money. Some days before the robbery occurred which resulted in the policeman's arrest Mrs. Ryan fell ill. Dawkins, she testified, paid the hysician who attended her part of his fee, promising to have the remainder in a few days. Between the time of the first payment and the date promises the robbery occurred which the policeman's arrest Mrs. Barlow, President of the Board of City Magistrates, had guaranteed to pay the lime of the first payment and the date policeman's arrest Mrs. Positions' hotel bills. which the next was due the rob-with Dawkins's alleged permis-suade this Court that this is newly dis-time of the first payment and the date upon wheh the next was due the robbery, with Dawkins's alleged permission, took place.

"I met Mr. Dawkins two years ago at a dance," Mrs. Ryan declared on the witness stand, and he was very attentive to me. His good looks and his devotion won my heart, and a few weeks later, when he proposed marriage. I readily consented to marry him. I sid not know that he had a wife living at that time."

Mrs. Ryan declared on the lawyer continued to argue until justice olimsted lost his temper, and referred to the fact that the evidence of the hotel managers showed that the first met Dawkins he was not on the police force. She was exceedingly bitter from the parlor and Ridge Country Club. It was entirely to the street, just as impromptu and was inspired by the costume of Mrs. Ra! Parr, one of the was testifying.

sumption Until Depositors

She is unconventional and used to sen. Court, at St. George, Staten Island, and place that would surprise him. The lawsations. With one or two exceptions, was again adjourned for one week. A yer's subsequent objections were lambthe other guests entered freely into the final decision will be reached on Saturleft the club house before the "water cure" incident.

At that time depositors representing 10 per cent. of the amount on obtained against her in March, 1906. Among those who witnessed it were deposit, or approximately $4,000,000, had Charlotte Guilty of Assault.

swiling 10 per cent of the amount of deposit, or approximately 146000 high and 1500 disposit, or approximately 14600 high and 1500 disposit, or approximately 14600 high and 1500 disposit, or approximately 14600 high and 1500 disposit 14600 high and 1500 d

Poillon Sisters in "Gallery", HOUSE WHERE Police Photographs of Two

TWO POILLON SISTERS FAIL TO AVERT THEIR SENTENCE AS "BEATS"

(Continued from First Page.)

tice Olmsted, who announced, with some

" 'Come on, get out of here, you bum; berg, "this court cannot pronounce I guess I'd better take you to the sta- sentence while that writ is operative. "Well, he roughed the man all the way sentence," interrupted Justice Zeller,

"I do not feel like waiting to make menner, upon Warden Flynn. When I Mrs. Bridget Ryan, a widow, living defendants were being arraigned in at No. 126 Second street, Brooklyn, tes- court, and hurried over here to serve defendants claimed several men would pay their bills. Magistrate Barlow was "But," cried Mr. Greenberg, "we have papers to prove that he did promise to "First you will have to disprove the claims of these defendants that other men promised to pay," thundered Justice Olmsted. "Well, then," replied the lawyer, "I ces ordered Probationary Officer Mrs. Axman to take the stand. She read orphaned when young and that Katherine, the elder, had been ap-Supt. Williams Opposes Re-pointed Charlotte's guardian. Katherine had married Joseph Smith in 1898, but divorced him in a year.

of the unpaid hotel bills and added that spirit of the occasion. Gen. and Mrs.

Alexander Brown, leaders of a more subdued division of the Smart Set than that to which Mrs. Parr belongs, had day, Feb. 29.

At the hearing held a week ago to-day of the contents of the Pollion trunks.

Superintendent of Banks Clark WillSuperintendent of Banks Clark WillSup

OF EXTUBLION TO UI LAIUIIIIUN IU

wish to present this evidence to serve Louis A. Levelle, a negro lawyer, of siris had been born in Troy, were corphaned when young and that Katherine, the elder, had been appointed Charlotte's guardian. Katherine had married Joseph Smith in 1898, but divorced him in a year.

Mrs. Axman recapitulated the story of the unpaid hotel bills and added that the story of the unpaid hotel bills and added that the story of the guardian that the story of Rutland road and Rochester avenue. In a deserted 600 feet back from the junction of Rutland road and Rochester avenue, in a deserted section of Flatbush, and then letting them out upon the pleas of police court lawyers who were well paid to the releasePs. When Magistrate Drogge learned that this extraordinary the streets in the light carried 600 feet back from the junction of Rutland road and Rochester avenue, in a deserted section of Flatbush, and then letting them out upon the pleas of the unpaid that the streets in the light carried 600 feet back from the junction of Rutland road and Rochester avenue. In a deserted 600 feet back from the junction of Rutland road and Rochester avenue. In a deserted 600 feet back from the junction of Rutland road and Rochester avenue. In a deserted 600 feet back from the junction of Rutland road and Rochester avenue. In a deserted 600 feet back from the junction of Rutland road and Rochester avenue. In a deserted 600 feet back from the junction of Rutland road and Rochester avenue. In a deserted 600 feet back from the junction of Rutland road and Rochester avenue. In a deserted 600 feet back from the junction of Rutland road and Rochester avenue. In a deserted 600 feet back from the junction of Rutland road and Rochester avenue. In a deserted 600 feet back from the junction of Rutland road and Rochester avenue. In a deserted 600 feet back from the junction of Rutland road and Rochester avenue. In a d committed to the workhouse for six months. Levelle promised to get her out for $50. Robinson paid $24 on account, but his wife is still in the workhouse. Walker paid $10 for the release of his friend, Maggie Jones, but she is till on the Island.

The lawyer pleaded not guilty and SON HELD AS SUSPECT was paroled until to-morrow for furexamination.

MAN'S BODY WAS CUT UP IS FOUND

Police Say They Now Know Who Murdered Salvatore Marchinne. Violation of Election Laws.

THE WORK OF BANDITS

Man Was Followed From Italy and Slain Because He Revealed Secrets.

chinne was stretched out in a chair get ting shaved. His throat was cut and ne Lawyer Greenberg was stabled in the chest with 'Pigtown" close to the place where Marchinne's body was found. Every resident of "Pigtown" is under police surveillance. It is believed that the rime was committed in another section of Brooklyn and that the body was taken to the outskirts of Flatbush in a der were unfamiliar with the details the neighborhood in which they disposed of the body of their victim is shown by their method of disposition. Had they gone a little further they might have thrown it into a sand plt thirty feet deep, where it would have remained without discovery for weeks.

Killed Wednesday Night.

From the condition of the body when Justice Mayo thereupon waved the No. 150 West Fifty-third street, was it was found it is certain that the murlawyer aside and ordered the prisoners arraigned in the West Side Court to der was committed either late on to be arraigned. They stepped to the day, charged with extorting money Wednesday night or early vesterday rail, smiling and confident. The Justinean false promises to have women morning. After being wrapped in two who had been committed to the workwho had been committed to the work-liouse by Magistrate Droege released before they had served their sentence. Aximan to take the state the briefly from memoranda that the before they had served their sentence. Several weeks ago The World exposed through the streets in the night and carried 600 feet back from the junction man, of No. 5 West Eighty-third streat saw a man in front of her home, whose actions convinced her that he was a burglar. The police were called but the man escaped. Nothing was stolen from the house.

Hardly had the police gone through

The matter of reopening the Knicker-stream from siphons of carbonated water. Not until the guests were thoroughly satisfied with the fit of the bath-ing suit was she allowed to escape.

Of the unpald hotel bills and added that she could not draw a word about them selves from the defendants. They had in the tub. Then the guests gathered around her and made her the target of streams from siphons of carbonated water. Not until the guests were thoroughly satisfied with the fit of the bath-ing suit was she allowed to escape.

Of the unpald hotel bills and added that she could not draw a word about them selves from the defendants. They had around her and made her the target of around her and made her the target of streams from siphons of carbonated water. Not until the guests were thoroughly satisfied with the fit of the bath-ing suit was she allowed to escape.

Of course the affair has created a term of years came up this afternoon before Justice Clark, of the Supreme Fall Into Line.

Fall Into Lin sensation, but Mrs. Parr doesn't mind. before Justice Clark, of the Supreme for the Court he would find himself in a on Jan. 2 his wife, Ida Robinson, was have letters sent there, and that last

IN MURDER OF FATHER.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.-William

COURT WIPES OFF INSTANT RELIEF OF THE SLATE FOR ITCHING HUMOR MAX HOCHSTIM

Justice Crain Dismisses Indictments Charging Perjury and

The two indictments found against I remembered that I had a bit of Cuti-Max Hochstim last December, charging him with perjury and violating the it fouched me the itching was gone and Sessions. Of course, the Grand Jury didn't know Max Hochstim, or it would would ever accuse him of wilfully pertake. In the rush and responsibility of but the idea that Max Hochstim and Cuticura Ointment have alleviated among the voung, and the comfort they have afforded worn-out and worried parents, have led to their adoption in countless homes as priceless for the skin and scalp. Infantile and birth humors, scalled-head, eczemas, rashes, itchings, each the Sans Salvi to-night relean aprens in bener of the mentily and economically cured.

Can't Eat? Can't Sleep?

Bass' Ale

WHITE LABEL

'DOG'S HEAD

The Choicest Bottling of BASS ALE

The Basis of Tone

in any well made piano rests in the sounding board and the way the foundation of the piano is laid; if this work is slighted in the least the tone and durability of the piano will suffer.

In the PEASE PIANO the sound boards are built in the most approved convex form, and the backs are heavy hardwood, giving unusual solidity to the foundation of our piano.

Prices from $325 up; terms most convenient; used pianos of many makes from $125 up (fully guaranteed). Renting, Exchanging. Write for catalog.

PEASE PIANO CO., 128 West 42d St.,

Limbs Below the Knees Were Raw -Feet Too Swollen to Get Shoes On-Sleep Completely Broken by Intense Itching and Burning— Well in Two Days and Says That

CUTICURA IS AMONG HIS HOUSEHOLD GODS

"God bless the man who first comand could not get my shoes on for a week or more. I used five or six different remedies and got no help, only when applying them the burning was worse and the itching less. One morning swelling wentdown and in two days I had my shoes on and was about as usual. I only wish I had used the Cuticura Remedies in the first of my troubles. They would have saved me two or three weeks of intense suffering. During that time I did not sleep an hour at a time, but was up applying such remedies as I had. Henceforth the Cuticura Remedies will be among my household gods, rest assured. George household gods, rest assured. George B. Farley, 50 South State St., Concord, N. H., May 14, 1907."

FOR BABY RASHES

Eczemas and Irritations, Cuticura Is Worth Its Weight in Gold. The suffering which Cuticura Soap d Cuticura Cintment have alleviated

29 CORTLANDIST FARK ROW & MASSAUST.

Skirts to Order From Your Own Material,

Pleated, gored, and many other up-to-date models. Mail Orders Filled. Green wald Bros.,

3d Ave. and 87th St. Tel. 789-79th. Open All Day Wash. Birthday.

DE FREEST.—Suddenly, on Wednesday,
Feb. 19, EMMA S. DE FREEST, beloved wife of A. J. De Freest and eidest daughter of Henry E. and Mary Pritchard, aged 42 years.
Funeral services at her late home,
112 W. 124th st., Saturday at 1.30
P. M. Interment at Woodlawn.
KREYLING. — On Thursday, Feb. 20, 1908, at Ardsley, N. Y., formerly of 1908, at Ardsley, N. Y., formerly of New York City, PAUL KREYLING, beloved father of Mrs. E. W. Norris, in his 65th year.

Body will be at Mrs. W. Hamilton's, 1666 Av. A. on Saturday, Feb. 22. Fu-neral from the Chapel of the Incarnation, East 31st st., on Sunday, Feb. 23, at 1 P. M. PERSONALS.

SOLDIERS AND SALLORS OF THE JAF-ANESE AND RUSSIAN FORCES, WHO PARTICIPATED IN THE ATTACK AND DEFENSE OF PORT ARTHUR, AND ARE NOW RESIDENTS IN THIS COUNTRY, ARE REQUESTED TO SEND THEIR NAMES & ADDRESSES TO THE MANAGENEEN OF THE NEW YORK HIPPODROME,

No Extra Charge to. It.

Brooklyn Branch: Newark Branch: at any American District Messenger Office to the city until P. M.